Day 1
Wednesday, May 2
Home - Tama, Iowa

Welcome aboard as we are off to the Pella Tulip Festival known as the “City of Bloom.”

Get ready to experience an authentic visit to Holland! Today we enjoy the scenic river valley as we make our way south into Iowa, making comfort stops along the way. We arrive in Tama, Iowa by early evening where we are able to settle into our room for a comfortable two-night stay at the Meskwaki Casino and Hotel. Upon arrival, we are issued a special “gaming packet” worth $60.00 sure to enhance our winnings! Tonight we enjoy dinner on our own at the casino.

Day 2
Thursday, May 3
Tama, Iowa - Pella, Iowa

Following breakfast, we depart for Pella, Iowa where the aroma of Dutch food fills the air and colorful tulip gardens surround us. On arrival we enjoy a one-hour, open-air trolley tour of the community. This afternoon we have reserved seats to the Dutch Holland Parade, which begins with the ‘klopen’ of the wooded shoe dancers and street scrubbing ceremony. Following the parade, time will be allowed to visit the Klokkenspel, take in the quilt shop, or visit the Dominie H. Scholte House, who was the founder of Pella. Following an enjoyable day, we head back to Tama, Iowa for our overnight stay.

Day 3
Friday, May 4
Tama, Iowa - Amana Colonies - Home
Following breakfast and checkout, we head to the Amana Colonies. Settled in the 1850s by members of a religious sect mostly from Germany, the Amana Colonies are seven quaint and closely united villages. Here we visit the winery, bakery, furniture store and woolen mill, which are just a few of the many unique shops. Having worked up quite an appetite we enjoy an authentic Amana-style dinner topped off with delicious homemade dessert! As we travel homeward, we enjoy visiting with our newly-made friends about our wonderful memories of Pella’s Tulip Festival and the springtime beauty of Iowa, along with where we hope to travel next!
